Step into The Tavern, Austin's go-to haunt for good times, great food, and a side of spirited history! Our German-style gem was built in 1916 by architect Hugo Kuehne, and has been delighting locals since 1920, when it operated as The Enfield Grocery Store-secretly housing a Prohibition-era bar and brothel upstairs. Today, The Tavern entertains patrons with thrilling ghost tales, including our mischievous resident spirit, Emily.

But it's not just the supernatural that keeps folks coming back. Swing by The Tavern for a taste of Austin's vibrant history, scrumptious bites, and unforgettable stories that'll have you saying,
